The Road Ahead: 2025 Trucking and Fleet Insights Report

How growing costs and inefficiencies drive the search for tech solutions

Independent owner-operators are buried in paperwork. Inefficient processes struggle to keep up with new and changing regulations.

Without an advanced solution, drivers are stuck playing catch-up to compliance demands instead of doing what they do best – driving.

A recent survey of 300 US-based fleet managers & owner-operators revealed:

Manual Processes Stall Efficiency

73% of respondents

use a completely or somewhat manual process for managing tolls

High Cost Of Compliance

35% of independent owner-operators

have considered ceasing operations due to the cost of compliance

96% of respondents

have had to cut costs elsewhere to cover compliance expenses

Growing Administrative Burden

22% of independent owner-operators

spend more than 10 hours each month on compliance-related tasks

That's at least ONE FULL DAY of driving lost each month.

Compliance Doubts & Consequences

90% of respondents

have some level of concern over nuclear verdicts
